Terms & Conditions:

By joining the Maple Ridge Tennis Club, you understand and agree to the following terms and conditions: Members are expected to wear proper dress while playing or on the courts during club times. This includes shirt, shorts or pants and tennis shoes. Members may bring guests to try the club with a drop-in cost of $2.00 per game, payable on arrival to one of the MRTC executives. Only two drop-ins allowed per visitor. If you would like to have your name added to the players list on the web site, please submit your request by email as detailed. You agree that the MRTC, volunteers or directors will not be held liable for any injuries or injustices of any kind and that your participation in club activities or play is completely done at your own risk and is voluntary. As a volunteer run organization by you the member, the MRTC makes no promises whatsoever regarding the fitness of the courts, quality of instruction or time of play allocation. When on the courts, you are playing on public property and are expected to treat the facilities with the same care that you would your own personal property. Your MRTC simply serves as a facilitator for you and the other members.
